

THE ARTISTRY HUB - UVAS

University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Lahore

Event Report

Colors are something which fills the empty spaces and make the thing more loving. So, was the effort of team THE ARTISTRY HUB to put all the COLORS OF UVAS whether they were in the form of societies, photographers, high achievers or any other talent which can add to the glory of UVAS. We aim to organize this every year to lock all the precious things of our university.

The event held on 10th of February, 2018. A large number of students participated in it from all the degrees. There were major games minor games, food stalls and photo booth to entertain the students. The main focus of the event was UVAS galleria, shades of UVAS and collections by different students. UVAS galleria included different views, commonly used places and some well-known things of university.

Moreover, there was a collection of different achievements by UVAS in the few recent years. A shade of UVAS was an idea to gather all the societies to show their distinct colors they are giving to university. Collections were there to show different crazy people of university having crazy collections with them.

Good remarks by the worthy Vice Chancellor and a huge crowd over the games and food stalls showed the success of the event.

We highly acknowledge the support of our worthy Vice Chancellor Prof. Talat Naseer Pasha, Patron TAH Prof. Dr. Aneela Zameer Durrani and Senior tutor Dr. Kamran Ashraf. We also appreciate our major sponsor Animal Care Trading Est.
